

Europe at War

By: Sarah Bolduc, Joe Mcgrail, Ryan Thurlow, Danielle Miller
U.S. College- Prep History- Ms. Luce (Student Teacher)

Danielle Miller

Music/ Video/ Newspaper

WWII: War Chronicles the War in Europe. History Channel. Video Cassette. A&E Home Video. 20002

Annotation: This is a secondary source. It is a useful source with lots of visual. It depicts the Battle of the Bulge and the Battle of Normandy: D-Day. This is a good source as far as a visual and information. The intended audience is anyone who wants to learn about this stuff.

Songs of WWII Jewish Resistance. Partisans of Vilna. Flying Fish Records. 1989

Annotation: This is a primary source. Its not that useful. Its intended audience is Jewish people because it is in Hebrew and you can't understand it unless you know Hebrew. This source was good music but not understandable unless you know Hebrew.

Enderis, Guido, " Chamberlain Visits Stuns Reich Hitler Looks to British Fair Play." The New York Times 15 September, 1938.page 1+2

Annotation: This article is about how Prime Minister Chamberlain met with Hitler. They would meet to talk about the tension brewing over the situation in Sudetenland. This is a primary source. This newspaper article is meant for the audience over in Germany and Britain. Although, this source could affect the entire world. This source is very useful.

Unknown. "Reich is Accelerating inflation of Inflation of Currency". The New York Times. 27 September, 1939. Page 1

Annotation: This source is primary. Inflation was beginning to rise in Germany because of military preparations. Also there has been as increase in loans. The loans are increasing the inflation, making it so money is worth hardly anything. The intention is to Germans who the inflation is affecting. This is a useful source.

Herbert, Matthews "Rome- London Pact Maybe Next to go". The New York Times 29 April, 1939. Page 1+5

Annotation: This is a primary source. Germans and Italians are the main audience for this article. It is about how Hitler is intensifying the threat of was. Italy may denounce its Anglo Italian Pact of 1938. This is a useful source because it helps you understand the things of the past helpfully.

Herbert, Matthews. "No Military Moves Apparent in Italy." 24 August, 1939. The New York Times. Page 1+4

Annotation: This article is a primary source and it is useful. It attracts Italians for its audience. It is about how Italy remains calm with the talk of war. They have not mobilized any troops together or made any special movements.

The Associated Press. "Paris Authorized War Declaration." The New York Times. 3 September 1939. Page 1+17

Annotation: This is a primary source and a useful source. This article affects the whole world, so for the audience its everyone. This article is about Premier Edouard Daladier received permission to declare war on Hitler and Germany. He is now waiting to hear from Hitler. Paris sent out their last warning.

Sarah Bolduc

Newspaper

“Japs Drop Poison Gas on Chinese.” The Stars and Stripes. Friday 18 June, 1943. Vol 1 No. 35

*This is a primary source. In this article, it’s about the Japanese dropping gas on the Chinese. It’s just another fight in WWII. It’s important because it has to do with WWII fighting in Europe.

“Mussolini Executed.” The Stars and Stripes. Monday 30 April, 1945. Italy Edition. Vol. 2 No. 147

*This is a primary source. In this article it’s explaining how the Italian dictator was captured and hung by the Partisans. He was hiding and he was caught and hung along with some of his other followers. This is important because he was the Italian dictator and the power is given back to the people and its not a dictatorship country.

“Hitler Dead, Germans Claim; Seventh Army Seizes Munich.” The Stars and Stripes. Tuesday 1 May, 1945. Germany Edition.

*This is a primary source. This article is about how Hitler supposedly died. They don’t know for sure if it’s a coverup or if he really did die. This information is important because WWII is about Hitler, and if the German’s leader is dead, then the war will be over really soon and the Jewish people will have their freedom restored.

“Germany Quits.” The Stars and Stripes. Tuesday 3 May, 1945. London Edition. Vol. 5 No. 158- ID VE- Day

*This is a primary source. This article is explaining how Germany quit the War. All the German soldiers in Italy surrender and this causes the Germans to surrender. This is important because the war European front is over.

“20 Minute Signing Ends History’s Bloodiest War.” The Stars and Stripes. Monday 1 September, 1945. London Edition. Vol. 3 No. 250- ID

*This article is a primary source. The Japanese signed the documents to surrender the war; they did this on the USS Missouri. This caused the war to end. This is a useful source.

Ryan Thurlow

Websites

World War Two, Angelfire.com, www.angelfire.com/ct/ww2europe

Secondary Source. This site contains information year by year of war in General. Covering from Pre-war, 1939 to the mid-war years, and the end in 1945. Covering the progress of the war, this site also gives ten reasons why they think Germany lost the war. This site also contains a good picture on the opening page of Russian Soldiers on top of Germany Soldiers.

The History Place, HistoryPlace.com,
<http://www.historyplace.com/worldwar2/timeline/ww2time.htm>

Secondary Source. This site contains a timeline of events during the war, year by year with text and pictures. It gives the events in timeline form so that one can scroll through and see events day by day and see what happened when.

World War II Links on the Internet, History.acusd.edu, http://history.acusd.edu/gen/ww2_links.html

Secondary Source. This website gives the general overlook of the war including weapons, and battles by date. This also includes maps, information on the Holocaust, propaganda, and many other information sections like museums and exhibits.

World War Two in Europe, www.usmm.org, <http://www.usmm.org/outreach/ww2.htm>

Secondary Source. This website contains information on the Nazi and their activity during the war. It includes info on the Holocaust, the S.S., their propaganda, and on Hitler. It also has key dates, and a glossary.

World War Two Europe, dean.usma.edu,
<http://www.dean.usma.edu/history/web03/atlases/ww2%20europe/ww2%20europe%20war%20index.htm>

Secondary Source. This website contains maps of the progress of the war, it contains maps from the different phases of the wars. It deals with the different countries battling throughout the war done by maps. It gives the battles on the maps as well as dates of them and the capture date off points and cities.

Joe Mcgrail
Non- Fiction Books

STARATEGIC BATTLES IN THE PACIFIC By. Earle Rice Jr. Published 2000 By Lucent Books Inc. San Diego California

This book is about the strategies of World War Two and how important battles turned out like Bataan, Corregidor, Guadalcanal, Rarawa, Leyte Gulf, Iwo Jima, Okinawa these were all important battles of World War Two and played an important role in the war. Secondary source

BATTLE FOR BERLIN END OF THE THIRD TEICH EARL F. ZIEMKE Published 1968 By Ballantine Books a division of Random House simultaneously in Canada By Ballantine Books of Canada Toronto

This book is about the Battle of Berlin. The Allies thought the German government would pause and seek an Armistice but that did not happen instead the battle of Berlin happened it was one of the greatest grimmest and one of the most important operations of the war.
Secondary

The Origins of World War ROGER PARKINSON Published 1970 By Wayland(Publishers)Ltd. Sameday Dominion of Canada by Longmans Canada Limited, Toronto

This book is about the origins of WWII. It describes multiple country's actions that led to WWII, including Germany. Secondary

The Technology of World War2 Sean Seehan Published 2003 Steck-Vaughn Company, Austin, TX.

This book is about all the things that were used in WW2 and the technology that was invented WW2. Secondary source

The Attack on Pearl Harbor By Earle Rice Jr. Published 1997 By Lucent Books San Diego

This book is about Pearl Harbor and who and why it was bombed, Pearl Harbor getting bombed led to us entering WWII. Secondary source