

STREET LAW

- Do you know your rights as a citizen when the law confronts you?
- Are you aware that juveniles have special rights under the law?
- Do you know how to obtain a lawyer?
- What is a legal search and seizure?
- Do you know how the Bill of Rights works on your behalf?

We deal with law every day in our lives. Knowing your rights, obligation and options under the law will help you become a more responsible citizen.

You will learn:

- how laws are created, implemented, and changed.
- your rights and responsibilities.
- information from the field of law enforcement.

SPORTS HISTORY*

- Have you ever wanted to explore the history of your favorite sport?
- Are you interested in learning how sports have played a role in history?
- Do you know how the rules of sports have evolved over time?

This course is designed to deepen your knowledge of the history of sports and to help you realize the physical culture of mankind, which has had a significance in history.

You will learn:

- the background necessary to make decisions in the sports arena.
- the history of basketball, baseball, football, and sports on the political stage – like protests, gender in sport and title ix.
- how sports started, who created, who were the primary figures, how they evolved over time.

MEDIA I (WEB PAGE DESIGN)

- Are you interested in creating your own app, game or web site?

This course takes a wide lens on computer science by covering topics such as programming, physical computing, HTML/CSS and data. You will engage with computer science as a medium for creativity, communication, problem solving, and fun.

You will learn:

- how to build your own website, apps, games and physical computing devices.
- your rights and responsibilities.
- information from the field of law enforcement.

MULTI MEDIA II (WEB PAGE DESIGN)

- Are you interested in enhancing your content knowledge from Multi Media I (Web Page Design)?

This course takes a deeper dive into the foundational concepts of computer science.

You will learn:

- how computing and technology can impact the world.
- how the internet works and the societal impacts of computer science.

(Pre-requisite-Multi-Media I (Web Page Design))

DUAL ENROLLED COURSES*

- What is dual enrollment?

“Dual Credit” refers to students who earn academic credits at two institutions -- their high school and a college or university that participates in dual enrollment programs.

Accounting, Principles of Marketing, and Sports History are courses that are dual enrolled at Thomas College. Students must be at least a junior with a GPA above an 80 to be eligible for dual enrollment.*

BUSINESS/CAREER TECHNOLOGY DEPARTMENT

Business is what makes the world go round.

Invest in your future!

There is a place for you!

ACCOUNTING*

- Are you interested in one of the most challenging and fastest professions in the business world?
- Are you interested in a profession that can channel you into countless career options?
- Do you like working with figures and learning how to manage, invest, and making financial decisions that will help to make a profit for the company that employs you?
- Do you wish to pursue a career that will earn you a good salary and provide excellent benefits?

Then the field of accounting should interest you.

You will learn:

- basic fundamentals of accounting.
- the accounting cycle.
- accounting and spreadsheet software to prepare financial documents for sole proprietorships, partnerships, and corporations.

This course is highly recommended for all students considering business administration, economics, entrepreneurship, computer science, accounting and finance careers.

CAREER & COLLEGE PREP

Using a variety of techniques and assessments, students will discover what they value, what skills they have, what their interest are, and how to match these attributes to a career.

This course is all about YOU!

You will learn:

- select and research several careers of interest.
- explore colleges and understand the application process.
- format and create employment documents.
- develop a personal employment/career portfolio.

PRINCIPLES OF MARKETING*

- Are you interested in owning your own business?
- Are you interested in learning how to market a product?
- Are you looking for a creative, dynamic, and exciting course/career?

Then the field of marketing is for you!

You will learn:

- the importance of building good customer relationships.
- how to develop a marketing mix in relation to a new product.
- how to create an effective brand name, tagline, logo, and magazine advertisement for a new product.

Emphasis will be on the elements of promotion (selling, public relations, publicity, advertising, and sales promotion) and how it contributes to the success of a business.

START YOUR OWN BUSINESS ~ ENTREPRENEURSHIP

- Do you want to be your own boss?
- Own your own business, and be a successful entrepreneur in your community?

Whether you plan to operate a business of your own or become an employee who expects to rise to a top-level position, you must be well informed about the production, marketing, and financial activities of a business.

You will learn:

- the management and development of a small business.
- create your own personal business plan.
- learn how successful businesses operate.

FINANCIAL LITERACY

- Do you know how to manage your savings, checking, credit, insurance, budgets, taxes, and other personal financial issues?
- Did you know that the decisions you make now financially could impact how you live later on?

This course is a necessity for life!

You will learn:

- how to open, maintain, and balance a checking account.
- the importance of savings.
- how to develop a budget.
- file income taxes.
- the importance of credit and the advantages/disadvantages of buying on credit.
- life-long skills that will prepare you for financial success, security, and the know-how.

SPORTS MANAGEMENT

- Are you interested in sports but are not game to be a player, mascot, or coach?
- Did you know that you can still catch all the action up close and personal as a manager of the team?

This course is for you!

You will learn:

- about sports themselves.
- the psychological principles at work behind them and how sports fit into our society.
- A strong foundation of knowledge in the field of business and how the worlds of business and sports interact and how you can make those interactions more profitable and beneficial for all.